President	Michelle Hendricks
Vice President	Kathy Evans
Treasurer	Barry Ogrin
Secretary	Mary Martyny

Old Business: Year in Review:

Riser and archive storage found a new home at the Gardens Presbyterian Church.

CSPB By-Laws were reviewed and updated

Grant was applied for and received. Thank you to Barry and Jane.

Participation in virtual sectional rehearsals was good. Thank you to Joe Brabham and Erickson Rojas

Thanks to Kathy Evans for the virtual production of Let Not Your Song End.

We have not forgotten the donor dinner we had to postpone with COVID shutdown.

New Business:

Thank you to Susan Learner for her service on the Board. Susan will be continuing as an alto and helping with registration.

State of the Chorus and Resuming in-Person Rehearsals for Fall:

A small group will be put together to examine returning to in person rehearsals in the fall, based on CDC guidelines. September 21, 2021 would be the earliest rehearsal date. If you'd like to be on the working group, please let Michelle know.

Lubbin Brother's original composition will be high on the list for performance.

Recognition of Herb Andrew and Clare Lesser:

Special thank you to Herb and Clare for their extraordinary service to this Chorus.

Herb especially recognized some great friends and supportive colleagues over the years.

Among them were Steve, Donna and Mark Aliapoulois, Clare Lesser and Molly Prager. "It's been fun and I enjoyed every minute of it."

Clare mentioned that 15 years ago she walked in to rehearsal and it felt like home. Except for Judy Bernstein, Clare has welcomed every single person to the chorus who attended the meeting tonight. Very sad to say good bye.

Adjournment:

The meeting was adjourned at 7:47 p.m..
